IMPORTANT NOTICE – 03 JULY 2025 SUSPENSION OF SATOSHI ISLAND DIGITAL ASSET UTILITY
Effective immediately, all trading (buying or selling) of Satoshi Island digital assets, including NFT Deeds, must cease.

Please be advised that the license agreement between Satoshi Island DAO LLC and the stakeholders of the private island in Vanuatu has been suspended due to failure to comply with key terms of the land lease.

Specifically:

There has been no material development on the island over the past three years.

The project has failed to demonstrate ongoing funding sufficient to maintain the property in a safe and habitable condition.

No economic contributions, employment opportunities, or community engagement initiatives have been made in support of the custom landowners or the local Santo community.

As a result of these breaches, the utility previously associated with the Satoshi Island NFT Deeds is no longer valid or recognised.

We are currently exploring a voluntary buyback initiative and welcome expressions of interest from community members willing to assist with structuring a fair and transparent process.

Further updates will follow.
